

Dundalk Photo Society win 2011 National Shield

Congratulations to Dundalk Photographic Society on scooping the National Shield title in Ballyfermot on Sunday, November 13th. The National Shield is a inter-club competition for intermediate photographers run annually by the Irish Photographic Federation.

This year's event saw 19 camera clubs from across the country battle it out for this coveted photography award. There could be only one winner on the day and this year Dundalk Photographic Society scooped the overall title having impressed the external judges with their stunning panels of black and white and colour images.

Members representing the club in the shield were Marie Agnew, Alex Coroliu, Evalds Gaspazins, John McGee, Declan Gernon, Damien O'Malley, Brendan Tumilty, Michelle Geoghegan, Gary Murphy, Mark English & Michael Cummiskey.

Individual Awards:

Colour Section

Silver Medal: Alex Coroliu for Accident
 Honourable Mention: Marie Agnew for Guitar Girl
 Honourable Mention: John McGee for Giraffes

Mono Section:

Gold Medal: Damien O'Malley for Birthday
 Bronze Medal: Michelle Geoghegan for Dressing Up

The Colour and Mono panels can be viewed on the next page & the overall top ten results are below.

Club	Mono	Colour	Total
Dundalk PS	377	369	746
Malahide Camera Club	373	366	739
Clondalkin Camera Club	366	361	727
Palmerstown Camera Club	368	358	726
Cork Camera Group	344	382	726
Celbridge Camera Club	369	354	723
Waterford Camera Club	356	367	723
Dublin Camera Club	359	355	714
Offshoot Photographic Society	350	359	709
Satsun Photographic Club	361	344	705

DPS 2011 National Shield Colour Panel

DPS 2011 National Shield Mono Panel

