

Dave Martin wins 2013 Image of the Year

This years exhibition launch was a terrific success. The Exhibition was opened by Jennifer Greene, Chairwoman of Dundalk Town Council and judged by Peter Paterson FRPS, MPAGB, EFIAP. Following on from his success as Photographer of the Year the winner of Image of the Year was Dave Martin. Daves winning image is 'Grace with Flower'. Congratulations to Dave on a truly successful year of photography.

Many thanks to Create Louth, which is the arts promotional side of Louth County Council who kindly sponsored the exhibition and to the Louth County Museum who host it.

Full list of Winners on the night were:

Colour Section

1st: Grace with Flower by Dave Martin

2nd: Blackrock Boat by Dave Martin

3rd: Kenbane Castle by Pat McHenry

Highly Commended:

At the Races by Micheal Mackin

Taibhse Maistir by Eithne Ni Anluain

Rocking Horse by John McGee

Senior Colour Winner: Grace with Flower by Dave Martin

Non Adv Colour Winner: Kenbane Castle by Pat McHenry

Mono Section

1st Caught in the Act by Dave Martin

2nd The Boss by Damien O'Malley

3rd Blathnaid by Gabriel O'Shaughnessy

Highly Commended:

Oh No I wont by Charlie Flynn

Anybody Home? by Dave Martin

Ciara by Tony McDonnell

Senior Mono Winner: Caught in the Act by Dave Martin

Non Advanced Mono Winner: The Boss by Damien O'Malley

Well done to all clubmembers who submitted work to what is a truly wonderful exhibition and a credit to all in the club!