

Night Lights

To prepare for our forthcoming practical night, five of the club's members drove in the dark to Salterstown. There we generated light displays by burning steel wool, swinging lights and firing laser beams. It was not just good fun but a learning experience to ready us for the larger outing to Melifont Abby later this month.

Mark Conroy swirls some burning steel over his head on this 30 seconds exposure

Conor McEaneyey rotates his torch on the end of a dog lead

Mark illuminates Conor's outline with this burning steel display