Inaki Hernandez-Lasa

Guest speaker 12th April 2012

Iñaki Hernández-Lasa is a Spanish photographer living in Ireland for the last 20 years. His passion for photography started at an early age when he used film cameras and slide.

Over the last number of years he has specialised in architectural photography and interiors. At present Iñaki shoots exclusively in digital format and uses the latest post-processing professional applications to ensure that all images reach the utmost level of perfection.

He has received certifications and accolades for his panels on architectural photography which demonstrate not only his technical ability but also cohesion and mastery in challenging compositions, use of light, postprocessing and printing techniques.

Furthermore Iñaki received certifications on Web Design in 2000 and on Graphic Design in 2010.

Iñaki has photographed some of the most renowned buildings in the world such as the Walt Disney Concert Hall in L.A., the Guggenheim Museum in Bilbao, the Jay Pritzker Pavilion in Chicago, the Ciudad de las Artes y las Ciencias in Valencia, Dublin Airport's New Terminal 2 or the Grand Canal Theatre in Dublin to name but a few.
