

Ross McKelvey ARPS DPAGB BPE2*

Winner of 2 FIAP Gold Medals, a Royal Photographic Society Gold Medal and a Grand Prix in International Competition 2012. Awarded a total of 18 Medals in local, National and International Exhibitions since 2010.

Ross McKelvey has been interested in photography for longer than he cares to remember, but only started taking it seriously when he joined BPIC Camera Club in Belfast in approximately 2000. He has been Chairman for the last 3 years, and has enjoyed the privilege of seeing it achieve the status of Top Club in Northern Ireland.

2010/11 was his most successful season in competitive photography, with 5 NIPA Starred images including 3 Firsts, a PAGB Gold Medal, a PAGB Bronze Medal, a PAGB Silver Medal, a PAGB Ribbon, and the Lionel Salem Trophy for top mono print in the NIPA Exhibition at Waterfront Hall, March 2011.

2011/12 has continued in similar vein, with success in achieving the ARPS and DPAGB Distinctions. There are only a handful of Camera Club photographers in N.Ireland who have been awarded the DPAGB, which is judged to 'Exhibition Standard.'
