

Jim Moreland FBIPP FRPS

As an amateur, Jim won almost every trophy available in Ireland – After working in several Photo & Graphic Design Studios, he was awarded the position of Staff Photographer to the N. Ireland Electricity Industry. He set up a NEW photographic department , a post he held for almost 20 years , during which time he has photographed just about everything from.....“ Portraits to Power Station’s” Jim was the FIRST Photographer from Ireland to win the prestigious £1000 ILFORD Awards in London. He won this blue ribbon event a total THREE times in COMMERCIAL, PORTRAITURE , & INDUSTRIAL .

A professional for over 40 years, he has been awarded 3 Fellowships:

BIPP – British Institute Professional Photographers.

MPA – Master Photographers Association – London.

RPS – Royal Photographic Society – HQ Bath / Bristol

The above panels were all monochrome images hand printed by Jim.

1997 – First from Ireland to obtain the BIPP Fellowship, This panel was also awarded the Peter Gruegon Trophy for MOST Outstanding BIPP Fellowship Panel of the year.

2001 – Selected to serve on the RPS Qualifications Panel.

2002 - BIPP awards in London , won Portrait Of the Year also “Best Quality Mono Image

2003 – Best Quality Monochrome print – Joint BIPP / MPA

2004 – TOP Industrial Print of the Year – “ “

2005 – TOP Industrial Print of the Year – “ “

2007 – TOP MONO PRINT of the Exhibition – “ “

He has lectured in Ireland & the UK with his presentation : MONOCHROME MAGIC

This series of presentations raised over £8000 for Marie Currie Cancer Care Charity Fund

Jan 2011 : Jim was awarded Honorary Life Membership of the British Institute of Professional Photographers – (BIPP)

July 2011 – Awarded the prestigious Royal Photographic Society FENTON MEDAL, which was presented to Jim by the RPS President, Mrs Rosemary Wilman on the 8th Sept 2011 at the Royal Society, Carlton House Terrace London, for his outstanding contribution to the work of the Society. Holders of the Fenton Medal are also granted Hon. Life Membership of the RPS.

Sept 2011 -Selected to serve on the RPS Distinctions Advisory Board (D.A.B.)

Feb 2012 - Elected to serve on the Royal Photographic Fellowship Board

Jim is currently giving a series of Presentations for The Royal Photographic Society “THE QUALITY IMAGE “